

Australian Clients Have Forex Commissions Slashed by 65%

When it comes to cost of trading, we are always working hard to ensure your cost of trading is always super competitive. It is something we pride ourselves on. As such, we're delighted to have already implemented a major reduction in your spreads for Australian clients across all major FX pairs including AUDUSD, EURUSD, GBPUSD, USDCAD, USDCHF and USDJPY, as well as on Gold and Oil (WTI).

On top of that, we have reduced commissions on the ProZero account from A$8.50 round-turn to just A$3 round turn! With our levelling discounts that could drop even further to a low A$2.5 round-turn, representing one of the most competitive commission costs available anywhere in Australia.

When you couple the reduced cost of trading with our extremely quick speeds of execution, you are well placed to take advantage of market opportunities as you see fit.

Here are the spread reductions by account type:

Standard Account – ultra competitive spreads with zero commissions.

Instrument	Target Spread	Commission
Forex (majors)	0.4 pip	Zero commission
Metals (Gold)	0.8 cents	Zero commission
Oil (WTI)	0.03 cents	Zero commission

ProZero Account – One of the most competitive commissions with spreads from 0 pips.

Instrument	Target Spread	Commission*
Forex (majors)	0	$3
Metals (Gold)	0.5	$3
Oil (WTI)	0	$3

*Roundturn in your account's base currency (USD/AUD/EUR/GBP).

We've doubled the number of instruments you can trade!

The other big news we have for you is we have more than doubled our offering across our share CFDs on the ASX, NYSE, Nasdaq and NYSE Arca Equities from 800 to over 1600.

What that means is you can now trade CFDs on over 1600 shares and ETFs including Apple, Facebook, Tesla, Amazon, SPDR S&P500 ETF Trust, VanEck Vectors Gold Miners, and the Proshares UltraPro Dow 30 to name a few.

Short or long the market with leverage and diversify your portfolio through share CFDs or ETF CFDs.

For the commodities traders amongst us, in addition to the massive increase in exchange-related products, we have also added a fresh lineup of new hard commodities to include Copper, Lead, Zinc, Nickel, Gas and Aluminium. These are all in addition to our already extensive commodities offering.

We’ve brought on the world-famous, Clifford Bennett as our new Chief Economist.

For those of you who still see most of your trading opportunities coming from currency trading, you’ll be thrilled to know we have managed to secure the “world’s most accurate currency forecaster” (Bloomberg New York) and “Guru of the Australian dollar” (Australian Financial Review) Clifford Bennett, as our Chief Economist.

Having worked as an analyst for some of the largest investment banks including BNP Paribas and Macquarie Bank, Clifford has been a regular guest on Bloomberg News, CNBC, Financial Times and ABC, sharing his views on the markets to a global audience of millions. Read the full press release.

Now, we are delighted to announce, Clifford will be sharing his views on the markets, identifying key charts and trade ideas twice daily with our clients. Don't miss his comprehensive break down, The ACY Daily Report (flagship video report as well as a written report) and then his supplementary report, the London Open, later in the day.

We'll send these reports directly to you in your inbox but to get them even faster, make sure you follow ACY Securities on your favourite social media platform.

We've made it much easier to deposit and withdraw using credit cards.

If you are keen to use your credit card to fund or top-up your trading account, we made it much easier for you to do so by streamlining the entire process.
